EDWARD L. FOSTER

Chief Foster, Of DeKalb Police, Dies at Lawson

Edward L. Foster, 52, DeKalb county chief of police and veteran of both World Wars, died Friday afternoon at Lawson VA hospital. He had been ill for about nine months.

Chief Foster had served with the DeKalb police department 17 years. He held a captaincy 10 years, and was promoted to chief three years ago.

Prior to that time, he had served with the police departments in the Michigan towns of Highland Park, Trenton and Flat Rock, where he was chief. He and his brother, the late Homer Foster, formerly operated a dry cleaning establishment in the Inman Park section of Atlanta.

Another brother, Frank C. Foster, a detective with the Atlanta police department, was shot and killed in line of duty March 15, 1932, while investigating a holdup in the city.

A native of Winder, the quiet, mild-mannered law enforcement officer served in the Marine Corps prior to World War I and with the corps in France and Gemany during that war. Previously he had participated in the Haitian campaign with the Marines.

During World War II, Mr. Foster was a chief petty officer in the Navy while on leave of absence from his police duties.

He was a Mason, and a member of the Decatur Elks club, Harold Byrd Post of the American Legion, and the Decatur First Baptist church. His home was at 415 West Ponce de Leon ave., Decatur.

DeKalb Commissioner Scott Candler, a personal friend of Chief Foster, praised him for his "outstanding ability and devotion to duty."

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday in Trinity Chapel, Decatur. The Rev. Dick H. Hall, pastor of the Decatur First Baptist church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.

Chief Foster is survived by his wife; five brothers, W. M. Foster, of Lilburn; I. W., R. M. and J. H. Foster, all of Atlanta, and R. H. Foster, of Albany; three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Orr, of Winder; Mrs. S. E. Hope, of Atlanta, and Mrs. W. C. Stinchcomb.
